PLACEMENT TEST

- This test is conducted to determine the level at which students enrolled in programmes requiring a preparatory class and students accepted into optional preparatory education will begin their studies.
- The Level Placement Test determines the level at which our students will begin their preparatory education, so it is very important that all students who will receive preparatory education take the test.
- All students who do not take the exam will begin their education at the A1 (Beginner) level.

MODULAR EDUCATION SYSTEM

The English preparatory course in the School of Foreign Languages consists of four modules (A1-A2-B1-B2), each lasting 8 weeks, in line with the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages.

COURSES

- A1: Main Course (16 hours) + Writing (2 hours) + Speaking (2 hours)
- A2: Main Course (18 hours) + Writing (2 hours) + Speaking (2 hours)
- B1: Listening and Speaking (12 hours) + Reading and Writing (12 hours)
- B2: Listening and Speaking (12 hours) + Reading and Writing (12 hours)

COURSE SCHEDULES

- Course schedules vary for each module.
- Finalised schedules and class lists for the first module will be announced on our website after the Placement Test.
- Our courses will commence on Wednesday, 24 September 2025, with the final course schedules and class lists.

Frequently Asked Questions – Compulsory Continuation

- Attendance at foreign language preparatory classes is compulsory.
- Students enrolled in the preparatory programme must attend at least 85% of the classes in each module.
- Students who do not meet the attendance requirement cannot take the module completion (final) exam and are considered absent from that module.
- Students who are absent twice in the same module cannot continue their preparatory education and are considered to have failed the preparatory education for that year.
- Students who are absent for more than 180 class hours in total during an academic year cannot continue their preparatory education and are considered to have failed the preparatory education.
- Medical certificates are not taken into account when calculating hours of absence.

Frequently Asked Questions – Course Materials

- The textbooks and other supplementary materials used in classes have been predetermined by our School of Foreign Languages. Students are required to obtain the specified textbooks and other necessary resources.
- In accordance with Law No. 5846 on Intellectual and Artistic Works, the use of unauthorised (pirated) or photocopied books is strictly prohibited. Therefore, students are solely responsible for any liability arising from the use of unauthorised (pirated) or photocopied books at our school.

Frequently Asked Questions – Registration Renewal

- Students who will be taking English Preparatory Education must log in to the Student Information System (UBS) at ubs.yalova.edu.tr to ensure their student status is ACTIVE for the Autumn Term. They should follow the steps: Student System - Student Information Screen (select Foreign Languages School from the Academic Programme Selection section in the top left corner). -Course Selection-Registration Renewal steps to complete the Registration Renewal process.
- Students in the Optional Preparatory Class will not select courses from their main programmes. They only need to complete the Registration Renewal process at the School of Foreign Languages. The registration renewal process is important for students to be assigned to courses.
- Students repeating the preparatory programme and students who have enrolled at our university through the YÖS (University Entrance Exam) will be able to complete this process after paying their fees.
- These processes are carried out twice a year, in the autumn and spring semesters.

Frequently Asked Questions – Student ID Cards

- Student ID cards also function as credit cards and will be prepared by the relevant bank and sent to our students.
- During this period, our students will be able to carry out their transactions using the student documents they receive via e-government.
